

Austin Murry

Guitar Instructor

Acoustic, Electric, Classical Guitar
Bass Guitar, Ukulele

Austin Murry is a multi-competition winning classical guitarist who's been teaching guitar in North Carolina for sixteen years. He has taught guitar on college campuses and well as in high schools and elementary schools.

He holds both a Bachelors and a Masters degree from the University of North Carolina School of the Arts. He teaches all types of guitar including classical, acoustic, electric, and bass. Austin also has performed in a variety of settings and musical styles. When not playing and teaching music he enjoys rock climbing and hiking.