

---

Gianna Posse

Guitar | Voice | Ukulele

Gianna Posse is a student at Queens University of Charlotte and is currently studying Music Therapy. Her primary instrument is voice and also teaches and plays the guitar & ukulele. She started guitar lessons in 2017 and voice lessons in 2019 at Music Quarters. She continued with her voice lessons until August 2022 then started her first year at Queens.

Since she was young she has been involved with music. Gianna has performed in musicals such as Annie, Anything Goes, and Bright Star. She has also done operas such as Iolanthe. At school, Gianna participates in vocal and guitar ensembles. In the summer of 2023 she competed in the International Choral Kathaumixw Festival in Powell River, BC.

Gianna's future plans include getting a Master's degree in Music Therapy before pursuing a Doctorate in Special Education with a concentration in Music Therapy to become a professor at a university.

Gianna will focus on teaching beginner level students in guitar and voice and take them to an intermediate level of study. She currently teaches a few friends and family and is excited about teaching in a studio.