

Aaron Carlisle

Guitar Instructor

Aaron's musical journey started with playing the trumpet in 1980 and then he started playing the guitar in 1985. He continued playing his instruments through college.

Aaron graduated with his Associates Degree in Business Arts in 2010 but continued his education of studying music and guitar at Central Piedmont Community College (CPCC) in Charlotte, NC. Aaron has also studied jazz improvisation at Berklee's online program. He has studied guitar privately with guitar teachers such as Art Meehan, Howard Morgen and Jim Duckworth.

Aaron is an active performing musician playing in wedding/corporate bands. He enjoys playing gospel, rock, blues, Motown and jazz. Jazz is his favorite genre of music and is his main focus.

Aaron has been teaching privately for over 20 years with a focus on beginners of all ages. He is excited about teaching at Music Quarters and joining a studio teaching facility.

Aaron enjoys enjoy camping, ice hockey, cycling and spending time with his six kids! He and his wife homeschool all of their children so needless to say he enjoys children of all ages!
