
Yenchun Ko

Piano and Violin Instructor

Ko Yenchun is from Taiwan and has played the piano since the age of four. In 2018, she moved to Portland, Oregon to take English courses intensively. English is her second language and Mandarin is her first language.

In 2019, Yenchun moved to Charlotte, to pursue a music therapy degree at Queens University of Charlotte. She graduated in 2022 with a Bachelor of Music, Music Therapy. In June 2017, Yenchun graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Art and Music Degree in Taiwan.

Yenchun has taught students in Taiwan and the United States, both on the piano and the violin. During schooling, Yenchun gave lessons to students referred to her by acquaintances in school. She has a passion for sharing the joy of music and advocating the virtues of music.

At Music Quarters, Yenchun will focus on offering piano and violin lessons to share the joy of music to others! She can teach all levels and all ages but enjoys teaching young beginners as they start their journey in music.

In the future, she would like to have an opportunity to play in an ensemble or accompany other musicians.
